CHAPTER 13

COMES NOW, Thomas C. Rollins, Jr., (the “Applicant”) attorney for the Debtor, and files this *Fourth Application for Allowance of Compensation and Reimbursement of Necessary Expenses for Thomas C. 1. On March 13, 2023, Debtor filed a bankruptcy petition under Chapter 13 of the bankruptcy code.

Paralegals are billed at a rate of $155.00 per hour. Legal Assistants bill at $100.00 per hour. Said rates are reasonable and in keeping with community custom and standards for attorneys in this area.

4. The Debtor herein did not provide a retainer.

6. The trustee has disbursed $2,489.20 on this claim as of May 14, 2025.

ADDITIONAL FEES REQUESTED

7. The time incurred and services provided by the firm since the filing of the previous fee application have resulted in Attorney's fees in the amount of $1,185.50 and expenses in the amount of $102.07 for a total of $1,287.57. A detailed accounting of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".
8. This is the Applicants' fourth request for allowance of compensation for professional services rendered in this proceeding. This request covers the period from August 22, 2024 to May 14, 2025.

TOTAL FEES FOR FOURTH APPROVAL

9. The time incurred and services provided by the firm during the pendency of this case have resulted in Attorney's fees in the amount of $5,363.50 and expenses in the amount of $132.90 for a total of $5,496.40. A detailed accounting is attached hereto as Exhibit "B".

A. LODESTAR ANALYSIS

1. The prevailing hourly rate in the community under § 330

The Applicant requests fees based on the following hourly rates: $360.00 for attorneys, $155.00 for paralegals, and $100.00 for legal assistants.

The hourly rates for attorneys with similar skills and experience as consumer bankruptcy attorneys can vary widely, typically ranging from $200 to $450 per hour. Due to the specialized nature of bankruptcy law, many attorneys are not proficient in this field. However, with 14 years of experience, approximately 4,000 bankruptcy cases filed, board certification in consumer bankruptcy law, and a strong community reputation, Thomas Rollins is well-qualified to command fees at the higher end of this range. Similarly, Jennifer Calvillo, who has 12 years of experience with the same firm, having worked on 90% of those 4,000 cases, holds board certification in consumer bankruptcy law, is highly regarded in the community, and is a partner in her firm, is equally positioned to charge at the upper end of this spectrum. The Applicants' paraprofessionals charge a blended rate of $127.50 per hour, which is within the reasonable range for paraprofessional services.

2. Reasonable hours expended

While Chapter 11 lawyers may only be compensated for reasonable time expended that produce a material benefit to the estate, § 330(a)(B) provides that a chapter 13 debtor's attorney can be awarded reasonable compensation for representing the interests of the debtor, based on the benefit and necessity of such services to the debtor and the other factors found in § 330.

The services provided to the Debtor and the expenses incurred by the Applicant were essential for administering the bankruptcy case, safeguarding the Debtor's rights, and fulfilling the Applicant's obligations under the Bankruptcy Code.

An itemization of time is attached as Exhibit "B" and an affidavit of Applicant is attached as Exhibit "C".

The fees include services related to a student loan dischargeability Adversary Proceeding in addition to the bankruptcy case.

3. Lodestar calculation

The lodestar amount for the Applicant's attorneys is $3,864.00 reflecting 11.3 hours at an hourly rate of $341.95.

For the Applicant's paraprofessionals, the lodestar amount is $1,499.50, based on 11.4 hours at a blended rate of $131.54 per hour.

Together, the total lodestar amount is $5,363.50, representing a combined total of 22.7 hours at a blended rate of $236.28 per hour.

B. ADJUSTMENTS TO LODESTAR

After determining the appropriate lodestar amount, the Court must decide whether the application of the § 330 factors and the Johnson factors warrant upward or downward adjustment.

1. § 330 Factors

The following § 330 factors were already discussed when determining the lodestar amount:

- (A) The time spent on such services;
- (B) The rates charged for such services;
- (C) Whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

The remaining § 330 factors are discussed below:

- (D) Whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of a case under this title;
 - a. The services provided to the Debtor and the expenses incurred by the Applicant were essential for administering the bankruptcy case, safeguarding the Debtor's rights, and fulfilling the Applicant's obligations under the Bankruptcy Code.
 - b. No adjustment is warranted.

(E) Whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue or task addressed;

- a. The Applicant did not devote excessive time to drafting schedules, pleadings, or conducting research. A significant amount of time was spent investigating the Debtor's financial situation and gathering the necessary documents for submission to the Trustee. This work was efficiently handled by legal assistants, who billed at $100.00 per hour.
- b. No adjustment is warranted.

(F) With respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and

- a. Both Thomas Rollins and Jennifer Calvillo are board-certified in consumer bankruptcy law by the American Board of Certification. In Mississippi, only five bankruptcy practitioners hold this certification, with three based in the state. Of these, two are with the Applicant's firm.
- b. The Applicant's extensive experience has already been addressed in the lodestar analysis.
- c. This factor was taken into account when setting the Applicant's hourly rate, but otherwise supports an upward adjustment.

2. Johnson Factors

The following Johnson factors were already discussed when determining the lodestar amount:

1. The time and labor required.
2. The novelty and difficulty of the questions presented.
3. The skill required to perform the legal services properly.
4. The customary fee in the community.
5. Whether the fee is fixed or contingent.
6. The experience, reputation, and ability of the attorneys.

The remaining Johnson factors are discussed below:

7. The preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to acceptance of the case.
 - a. Not Applicable.
 - b. No adjustment is warranted.
8. Time limitations imposed by the client or circumstances.
 - a. Not Applicable
 - b. No adjustment is warranted.
9. The amount involved and the results obtained.
 - a. This factor was already discussed in the § 330 analysis (Whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of a case under this title;)
 - b. No adjustment is warranted.
 - c.
10. The undesirability of the case.
 - a. While this case is no less desirable than other chapter 13 cases, when compared to the broader legal community chapter 13 cases have many elements that make them very undesirable.
 - b. Client Non-Cooperation: Debtors in Chapter 13 cases may have difficulty gathering the necessary financial documentation or adhering to the repayment plan, which increases the attorney's workload and the chances of case dismissal.
 - c. Length of the Process: Chapter 13 cases typically last 5 years, which may lead to diminished client interest and requires attorneys to remain vigilant for potential issues throughout the repayment period. Few practice areas demand such a long-term commitment, where a lawyer must predict an appropriate fee upfront. While some bankruptcy cases are confirmed and proceed smoothly, most require substantial additional work post-confirmation, including handling Motions to Dismiss or Motions for Relief.
 - d. Risk of Dismissal: If the debtor fails to make payments or meet other requirements of the repayment plan, the case may be dismissed, and the attorney may not be compensated for all of the work completed. Chapter 13 practitioners collect a shockingly low percentage of allowed fees in chapter 13 cases.
 - e. This factor weighs in favor of an upward adjustment.
11. The nature and length of the professional relationship with the client.
 - a. Applicant had no prior professional relationship with the client prior to their engagement in this matter.
 - b. No adjustment is warranted.
12. Awards in similar cases

- a. The “market rate” of $4,000.00 is a distorted figure, as attorneys are pressured to accept it to avoid the burdensome fee application process, rather than reflecting a true market rate.
- b. Under § 330(a)(3)(F), the Court is instructed to compensate bankruptcy attorneys at a rate comparable to that of similarly skilled and experienced non-bankruptcy attorneys.
- c. This is only one of the twelve Johnson factors. If the Court determines that a downward adjustment is warranted, this factor should be considered alongside the other § 330 and Johnson factors which favor an upward adjustment of the lodestar.
- d. Market rates have been addressed in the lodestar analysis, and no additional adjustment is necessary.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Applicant requests that this Court enter an Order awarding reasonable attorneys’ fees for the professional services rendered herein and authorizing and directing Debtor to pay said attorneys’ fees and expenses. Applicants pray for general relief.

Respectfully submitted
